The Annual Thanksgiving Pie

Drive is one of our staff's favorite events at OES. We provide a pie for every teacher, bus driver and support staff member. We ask that you sign up to bring as many pies as you are willing to buy/make. You can sign up here: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080d4ca5ab2fa31-annual1>

Pies will need to be delivered to OES the morning of Wednesday, November 22 (the day before Thanksgiving). If you have any questions or need to make arrangements to drop off your pies in advance, please contact Cindy Chaney at cindycchaney@gmail.com or Kathryn Nagle at katnagle@gmail.com.

Did you know...

that some of the PTA funds are used to bring in performers for multiple assemblies through the year? On Friday, November 2, Joe Romano brought "Books, Not Bullies!" to OES. Joe highlighted some books that teach lessons about friendship, respect, and bullying. He talked about making yourself a smaller target for bullying, and used visual tricks to shrink his head to reinforce. He also talked about that bullies are less likely to target you if you surround yourself with good friends and make sure bullies know that you will not be afraid to talk to a parent, teacher, or trusted adult. The kids were very enthusiastic to participate!

Flyers were sent home with students about the MySchoolAnywhere service. If your family has already registered online, you may disregard it. For any families who have not yet registered, please complete the form and return it to the school this week. It's important that we have every student's name and teacher so that we have a complete directory. We don't want any students feeling left out. Parents have the option to keep contact information private.

If you need assistance registering or have any questions about MySchoolAnywhere, please contact Tanya Arias at tanya.a.arias@gmail.com.

Sherwood High School will present Fiddler on the Roof

in the Ertzman Theatre at 7:30 p.m. on November 17 & 18 at 7:30pm and November 18 at 2pm. Set in the little village of Anatevka, the story centers on Tevye, a poor milkman, and his five daughters. With the help of a colorful and tight-knit Jewish community, Tevye tries to protect his daughters and instill them with traditional values in the face of changing social mores and the growing anti-Semitism of Czarist Russia. Rich in historical and ethnic detail, Fiddler on the Roof's universal theme of tradition cuts across barriers of race, class, nationality and religion, leaving audiences crying tears of laughter, joy and sadness.

All seats are reserved and are available online by going to www.sherwoodhs.org. Avoid the line at the box office, purchase your tickets online and then download/print your tickets at home.
